Modern Indian homes have undergone drastic changes with living rooms made into an encounter with the outdoors, bathroom becoming a wellness zone and the kitchen now a room for you to socialise with family and friends. It is but natural that lighting solutions for homes evolve and improve to allow us to lead better lives. And as is evident over the next few pages, lighting options have grown considerably, giving you a wide variety of designs to suit your space—with some designers going for futuristic styles, and other creations that are inspired by the past. Indeed, one of the hottest items in lighting is the often ornate and medieval-made-chandelier. Parushni Aggarwal Gupta, Owner & Creative Director, Studio Creo, a leading luxurious interior solutions store in Delhi, says, "The most trending design and the most preferred over style are chandeliers. They are in strong demand again heading into the lists of 2015-16. Originally created to add style and ambient lighting, some chandeliers are designed with down-lights to provide task lighting. Chandeliers aren't just for dining rooms any more. We're seeing them surface just about everywhere, from kitchens and baths to laundry rooms." Let's throw light on some of the most beautiful designs in chandeliers and more...

This residence for Anand by New Delhi based DCA Architects is an attempt to blend the traditional and the modern in a contemporary urban home, also seen in the lighting design.

“Bold and glamorous lattice work that casts beautiful patterns is the new trend this year. We will also see more of rustic and industrial style lighting in the coming season.”
