Following last year's launch of the maiden outpost in New Delhi, the Townhall brand has expanded into the Indian market of Gurugram for its newest restaurant. Spread across 3,620 square feet, Townhall Gurgaon is designed by New Delhi-based groupDCA with a contemporary style highlighted by a variety of bespoke elements.

Surrounded by a slew of other F&B concepts in one of the city's central plazas, the new restaurant is equipped with a glazed façade to maximize exposure to natural light. In addition to alfresco seating, the dining room is configured in an octagonal layout that visually divides the space and also promotes functionality. Booth seating lines the walls to establish intimacy in the eatery's nooks and corners.
